World Day of Remembrance for Road Traffic Victims

The United Nations endorsed World Day of Remembrance for Road Traffic Victims (WDoR) as global day, making it a major advocacy day for road traffic injury prevention on October 26, 2005. The WDoR is observed on third Sunday of November each year — to remember the many millions killed and injured on the world's roads, together with their families and friends. This year, the day was observed on November 18, 2018.

Roads and streets are more than connections from point A to point B. They tell stories, some of them tragic, which are just unforgettable. In the year 2018, the slogan for WDoR 2018 was 'Roads have stories'.

CUTS in collaboration with the Transport Department, Government of Rajasthan, Eternal Heart and Cardiac Centre (EHCC), and 3M (Reflector Manufacturing Company), People's Trust and Bharat Scout and Guides State Local Association jointly observed the WDoR on November 18, 2018.

A walkathon was organised at the largest circle of the Rajasthan named as Jawahar Circle. George Cheriyan, Director, CUTS International highlighted the importance of the day and emphasised on the need for urgent passage of the Motor Vehicles Amendment Bill. Renowned neurosurgeons and community medicine specialists of EHCC hospital spoke about road accidents and injuries and related issues.

Two medical camps on both sides of the main gate of the Circle was organised where more than 200 morning walkers, traffic police officials and common road users were medically examined. The reflector pasting activity was carried throughout the day.

CUTS along with People's Trust, Scouts & Guides and District Traffic Police also observed the WDoR by conducting an interactive and orientation meeting with Student Scouts and Guides at Scouts and Guides, Divisional Training Centre in Bani Park, Jaipur.

Around 250 female students were present during the event. The students took oath in front of Traffic SP Shri Rajendra Singh to obey traffic rules. A brief overview of road safety measures was provided to students focussing on five risk factors, mainly associated with road accidents, such as wrong side driving, lack of road safety rules, measures, high speed, drunk driving, etc.

The government has framed road traffic and safety rules for everyone using roads for their safety and reducing the number of daily road accidents. Therefore, rules and regulations, such as practicing defensive driving, using safety measures, maintaining speed limit, understanding road signs, etc. should be followed. Some real incidents of victims and survivors of road accidents were also shared which were highly appreciated by all participants and district traffic police.

Sharing Community

Sharing of resources can help in achieving Sustainable Development, said Jyoti Khandelwal, former Mayor of Jaipur while addressing participants in Stakeholder's Consultation on Green Action Week (GAW) 2018 organised by CUTS International.

GAW is a global campaign to promote Sustainable Consumption observed every year in the month of October. In the year 2018, 46 civil society organisations (CSOs) from 30 countries participated in the campaign on the theme 'Sharing Community'.

Vikas Sitaram Bhale, IAS, Agriculture Commissioner, Government of Rajasthan stressed on sharing, reusing and recycling of products to save the planet from destruction. He said that if we want to save the earth and make optimum use of limited natural resources, the concept of sharing has to be promoted and the model of linear economy of 'make, use and dispose' be replaced by circular economy.

Cherian explained the context of the theme 'Sharing Community'. As per UN Guidelines on Consumer Protection, 'Right to Healthy Environment' is one such important right. Under this right, the UN has included Sustainable Consumption in the year 1999, which pushes for the use of goods and services which use minimal natural resources and release minimum pollution and waste in turn. He highlighted how the 'circular economy' has become a popular word in the global economy as an alternative to linear economy.

Linking with the circular economy is the concept of sharing economy where assets and services are shared between two or more individuals, either free of cost or for a nominal price. He concluded by saying that how we can share our resources instead of continuously taking from the nature and degrading the environment is a matter of concern and should be given a serious thought.

Somana Dutta, Professor, Rajasthan University put forth her views on the theme and cited several examples from all over the world and India where this concept is being practiced and gaining huge success.

Nimisha Gaur, Programme Associate, CUTS shared the work done under the campaign in the city of Jaipur.
