Mediation	All the 68 cases reported in the quarter October-December, 2016 have been dealt by the GSK team. On behalf of aggrieved consumer, the team took up their matter, served notices to opposite parties, talked to them over phone, whenever required, and thus got the complaints resolved out of court. So all the cases were resolved through an informal mediation process, not through a formal mediation process, where both the parties were called for a joint session.
Drafting Mediation	Not required during the quarter.
Agreements
Complaints Drafted	Seven consumers have been advised to escalate their consumers to consumer forums during the reporting period and were guided and helped in drafting their complaints. (See Annexure H, which states about all 24 such complaints since July, 2015 but if we take three months of reporting, then these are 7)
